Over the River

BY JOE DIPIETRO

Nick's grandparents love him. What's not to love? They even have dinner with him every single Sunday. When Nick's new dream job threatens to take him away from their dotting affections, they hatch a series of zany schemes to keep Nick around, including inviting the lovely- and single- Caitlin O'Hare as bait. Will Nick be able to tear himself away from his annoying, but loving, grandparents?

Hee Haw Hayride

written by Tim Kelly
music by Bill Francoeur

The Tollivers and the Calhouns are always fussin' 'n' feudin', which makes things difficult for Emmy Lou, a Tolliver, and Lee Roy, a Calhoun. The story of the 200-year old battle catches the interest of a couple of New York near-bankrupt publishing houses who quickly send agents to sign up the conflicting families. It ain't easy having to go to the town of Lonesome Polecat, though, as the agents soon find out. It's filled with colorful characters that will raise the roof then bring the house down!

Arsenic & Old Lace

By Joseph Kesselring

We meet the charming and 'innocent' old ladies who populate their cellar with the remains of socially and religiously "acceptable" roomers; the antics of their brother who thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt; and the activities of their dear nephew Mortimer trying to keep his family together. What will happen when he finds out about his aunts' strange hobby? What about when his devious and murderous uncle drops by to pay them all a visit? Come see the Barn Theatre revisit an old classic as we put on Arsenic and Old Lace.

Brothers Grim Spectacularathon

by Don Zolidis

Two narrators attempt to recreate all 209 of the fairy tales of the Brothers Grimm in a wild, fast-paced extravaganza. To make it more difficult, they attempt to combine them into one gigantic fable using Rapunzel, Rumpelstiltskin, Hansel and Gretel, Snow White, Sleeping Beauty, Cinderella and other more obscure stories like Lean Lisa and The Devil's Grandmother. Hold on to your hats during this fast paced, nonstop, laugh-out-loud comedy!
